For the month of June we have successfully held our annual Concours d'Elegance, a visit to a former contributing member and chief judge at a retirement home and a car show visit with picnic.

The Concours was very successfully staged at the Cumberland Museum site for the third year in a row with the weather we deserve. For the uninitiated observer the show went off very smoothly thanks to the efforts of the manager, equipment manager, chief judge, the ladies operating the entry and scoring desk, the parking manager, food manager and many others who contributed. It takes the effort of a lot of people behind and in the scene to make such an excellent example of volunteer organisation. The best assessment I have seen of our effort is the highly complimentary and admiring letter received from the five Toronto club members, who graciously participated in the Concours and sent a supportive note to us. In spite of our own lessons learnt critique of our effort in the meeting following the event, it came off as highly successful to our Toronto visitors. Their own Concours will be held on July 30th in the Toronto area and any of us are invited to attend. (See details elsewhere in the Jottings - editor)

On June 3rd three of us, Bob Hiland, Lee Harrington and myself, visited Harry Brownell at the Orchard View

Retirement Home near Manotick Station for a delightful lunch including his daughter, Vivian. A longstanding, active club member, it was a great pleasure to get together with Harry and bring him up to date on club matters and things Jaguar.

The Mississippi Car Show and picnic on June 25 at the Carleton Place home of Stewart and Paddy Robertson was a success in spite of the tropical monsoon rainstorm in the afternoon. Fortunately the rain held off until 11:30 AM allowing time to see the car show. Due to the generous hospitality of the Robertsons, we had a congenial lunch in their beautiful and spacious home near the show site. Our E-type got us home through the storm without leaking and maintaining visibility with wipers on max and the ersatz heater keeping the windshield clear internally.

We had a moment of concern with a warning from the Toronto club V-P that there may be problems with the backing insurance provided by JCNA for the Concours operation. Our new treasurer, Roy Fjarlie, efficiently and rapidly sleuthed his way through the insurance laws and regulations with the help of the JCNA insurer and the Insurance Bureau of Canada and showed that we are legally covered.

In discussing the issues with the Concours operation Roy also assembled a financial picture of the Concours, which showed that we are internally subsidising this event and we are looking at raising more funds from the event to reduce the drain on our treasury as the continuing low exchange rate Canadian dollar is costing us in our fees paid to JCNA in US dollars. We have had a significant balance in our bank account, which will erode without some finance changes.

I'm looking forward to the drive on July 4th to a country car museum and quaint restaurant on the Quebec side. This will be followed by the annual ABCD major show on July 15 at the usual Britannia riverside site. And looking ahead, don't forget the extensive drive on the Aug. 4th weekend to the Maxville Highland Games followed by a procession to Bromont in Quebec with a cruise of Lake Memphremagog. Thanks once again to Al Graves and Don LeBlanc, planners extraordinaire for these two events.

2017 Concours & Family Day

The club's premier annual event was successfully held on 11 June...and what a difference a year makes! The same day last year, hardy Jag enthusiasts shivered through a cold, cloudy, blustery day with the only respite being numerous cups of coffee while huddling under the hand warmers in the washrooms. This year we were blessed with blue skies throughout and real heat...dare I say almost too warm. Demand for hot coffee was replaced by chilled bottled water. Our venue once again, the Cumberland Heritage Village Museum, was in perfect shape for the event with a manicured green field and lush foliage.

Considering the perfect weather, the turnout could have been better with but 34 Jags present, about the same as the "chill fest" the previous year. As for out-of-towners, we were very pleased to have a contingent of three cars from the Toronto-based JCNA club, Ontario Jaguar Owners' Association (OJOA) in attendance. Veteran attendee Henry Huxsel joined us once again this time as sole Montreal representative with attendance likely limited by the same day Canadian Grand Prix. Mike Beverley from Brockville returned with his two E-types.

The OJOA crew comprising Alan and Carol Lingelbach, Chris and Tracy Kailan and Garner Pridmore had more than a passing interest in our event as Garner is the Concours Chair and the Lingelbachs, repeat hosts for the OJOA concours event at their Wellesley ON home, coming up on 30 July. They passed on an invitation to OJC members to join them (see the ad and details elsewhere in the Jottings).

Registration and car cleaning concluded by noon then it was time to tuck into the buffet lunch before the judges (AKA "the dirty dozen") took to the field at one to scrutinize the Jags entered in Champion class (mechanical, exterior, interior, boot and engine) and Driven class (mechanical, exterior and interior only). The cars entered for show only weren't forgotten as "the Three Amigas" (Carol Lingelbach, Beverley Blais and Helen Harwood) wandered the field to examine and select their collective choice for best enthusiast's Jag.

With 14 cars to judge (9 Champion and 5 Driven), the judges were kept busy until around three after which our registration and scoring ladies tabulated the results. There were several first-timers in both classes, including a couple of winners. The top score of the day went to the OJOA visitors Alan and Carol Lingelbach and their rare 2014 French Racing Blue XKR-S with a near perfect score of the trophies, attendees exchanging farewells and preparing to depart and the concours team beaver away with site cleanup.

99.98 (out of 100). The top Driven class was repeat winner Paddy Robertson and her 2005 jet black XJ8 VDP scoring 9.98 (out of 10). Our "Three Amigas" picked Jim Ashby's gorgeous metallic maroon E-type coupe for the Best Enthusiast car's Miniman Trophy. The award for "People's Choice" went once again to Gary Grant's XK140, the oldest car in the field. A complete list of the results follows this article. The super day concluded with president Dave Kenny handing out

The success of another superb concours day was due largely to the numerous club volunteers who pitched in to ensure it all ran smoothly. Those deserving of a "many thanks" are Concours Chair John Blais who took care of the crucial organizational issues, Mike ("The Mover") O'Brien who loaded up and lugged the gear to the site, the registration /scoring ladies (Jean Dunlop, Bonnie Newson, Louise Larabie with Paddy Robertson on trophies), Lee and Alex Harrington for the tasty lunch, the 12 concours judges, the three show car judges (Carol Lingelbach, Beverley Blais and Hel-en Harwood), Fergus Groundwater and helpers on parking, Bob Hiland on PR, Stewart Robertson and Alan Graves for photos, and treasurer Roy Fjarlie for printing the money. Finally, kudos to President Dave Kenny who with cool nerve stood by and allowed this crew to organize and run an event the results for which he is ultimately responsible.

Planning is already underway for next year including a return to the heritage village venue. If you didn't attend the event this year, you missed a super day. It's difficult to imagine a better way to partake in club membership with like minded Jaguar owners. If you weren't there, give it some serious thought for 2018.

"Wheels on the Mississippi"

A Day by the Ol' Mississippi

Ottawa Jaguar Club members enjoyed an active day 25 June starting with the Wheels on The Mississippi Car show in Carleton Place. We started with seven club cars on the field and a few more "non-classics" parked on the street. There were well over 100 cars of all description present. There was also a good selection of food and refreshments available as well.

A little after two hours of checking out the field and car talk, the black clouds starting rolling in - then came the rain. We decided that it was time to head off to the beach and lunch party at Stewart and Paddy Robertson's just a few minutes away. After all the cars were parked we ran into the house to get away from the rain. Once inside, the sun re-appeared!

All had a great time enjoying their picnics plus dessert treats supplied by the Robertsons ... even ice cream bars to finish off! People and cars kept showing up ... there were about 35 or so party goers.

Now a bit about "the beach" in the Robertson's back yard. There was a small inflatable pool containing 4 rubber duckies, a tube and one lonely duck in the pool with at least a four-inch beach surrounding the pool perimeter. (...apparentlly eporter Bob was the only one to join the ducky in the pool - editor)

Everyone was enjoying the fun around the pool on the deck until a large lightning strike hit a short distance away. The rain started again this time accompanied by hail. Back we went into the house. The power went off but thanks to the backup generator the party continued.

There is no group picture available as people were continually moving between the pool, the deck, the kitchen, the family room and of course Stewart's man-basement where he keeps his model planes and boats.

Many thanks to Paddy and Stewart for a great (if turbulent) day!

NEW USE FOR OLD SMARTPHONE

Before you throw out that old smart phone consider using it as an OBD monitor/fault finder for your OBD-equipped car.

I use this setup in my Mercedes and Range Rover because both cars occasionally generate a 'check' engine light and this allows me to see the fault and, if applicable, clear it without running to the dealer.

I use the 'Torque' app and an OBD connector that I plug into the OBD port, the smart phone and connector then communicate via Bluetooth. It all works very well and lets me see what is happening in real time in my car.

Any questions etc. Please feel free to email me.

Thank you,
Wolfgang
